When Mike Kelsey, an executive in the McCluskey Chevrolet business, found out that Mark Williams of Beechmont Ford was willing to sell his Lawrenceburg Chevrolet dealership, he turned to RKCA to help him acquire the business. Kelsey’s dream was to own his own dealership. Before the deal even closed, he chose a slogan: “Kelsey Chevrolet, from our family to yours.” Following RKCA’s successful transaction, Kelsey couldn’t have been happier with the outcome: “It’s hard to explain. It’s a lifetime dream come true. It’s feelings you have when you have a child born, a grandchild born. We’re blessed with 18 grandchildren, and this is like watching another one be born.”
